

What We Will Do in Our Photovoice Project

	Learn about Photovoice Discuss our questions, concerns, and hopes Start our work as a group Develop ideas of things to photograph Talk about how photographs can tell our “stories”
	Take Photographs Learn about being a researcher Practice explaining the project to others Learn how to use the camera Take photographs that represent our point of view
	Discuss Photo & Reflect on Experience Talk about our photos Think about what we want to say with this project Develop ideas of new photos to take File/organize our photographs
	Write or Dictate Narratives Write or dictate captions to go with them Create categories for our exhibit Invite some guests to discuss our photos
	Choose Photos for Sharing Plan our exhibit: what, where, when, how Think about who to invite Decide on outreach formats
	Invite People to Share in Discussion Work with media, social media, and community Plan other outreach. Create and send out invitations
	Present & Exhibit Celebrate the work we have done See what people say and think about our efforts Know our voices have been heard
	Reflect & Move Forward Celebrate Reflect on what we have done and learned Think about next steps Plan for the future
